Personal-Use Licence

Botanical Illustrations print set, published by Quietcog.

The artworks

Every artwork in this set is a work created before 1900 whose image is published by the holding museum as public domain / CC0 (Creative Commons Zero) open-access content. Each image was checked against the museum's own open-access data when the set was assembled (see the Provenance document, which lists the museum, accession number, link and licence flag returned for every image). Nobody owns the underlying artworks, and nothing in this licence restricts anyone from obtaining the same public-domain images directly from the museums for free.

What you are buying

You are paying for Quietcog's curation and selection, and for the print-ready preparation: choosing the images, preparing them for common frame ratios at print resolution, the sizing guide and the documentation.

What you may do

- Print the files for your own home, office or studio, and as personal gifts.
- Print them as many times as you like, at any size the guide allows.
- Use the prints in your own non-commercial decor (for example your living room or a rental property you occupy).

What you may not do

- Resell, share, give away or upload the Quietcog files (the ZIP, the JPEG files, the guides) to anyone else, including file-sharing sites and marketplaces.
- Sell prints made from the Quietcog files, or list them on print-on-demand or marketplace shops, or sell the set as part of another digital product.
- Present the Quietcog documents (guides, licence, provenance) as your own work.

These terms apply to the Quietcog package and files. They do not claim any rights over the public-domain artworks themselves.

No affiliation or endorsement

Images courtesy of public-domain open-access collections; Quietcog has no affiliation with, and is not endorsed by, any museum or collection named in this set. Museum names appear only to state factually where each image came from. No museum logos or trademarks are used.

How the set was made and how to report a problem

The curation, image preparation and these documents were produced with AI-assisted tools and checked against the museums' open-access data. Errors in captions or metadata are still possible. If you spot one, or have a problem with a file, please write to gb1@mail.grokbot.com. Refunds are available within 14 days of purchase under the refund policy published on the Quietcog website.

Provided as is, without warranty. Colours in print depend on your printer, paper and lab.
